

Cannae Holdings and Senator Investment Group Remind Shareholders to Recall Shares on Loan by September 18th Record Date

Holders of Shares Not Recalled by Record Date Set by Company Will Not be Entitled to Vote those Shares at Upcoming Special Meeting

LAS VEGAS & NEW YORK, September 10, 2020 – Cannae Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CNNE), (“Cannae”) and Senator Investment Group, LP (“Senator”), which, directly or through affiliated entities, jointly own or have an economic interest equivalent to approximately 15% of the outstanding shares of CoreLogic, Inc. (NYSE: CLGX), (the “Company”), today issued the following statement:

“As we have previously indicated, CoreLogic has set September 18, 2020 as the record date for stockholders to be eligible to vote at the Company’s Special Meeting of Stockholders scheduled for November 17, 2020. We remind shareholders that, to the extent that they have loaned out or pledged any of their shares of CoreLogic Common Stock, they should contact their prime broker(s) to instruct them to immediately recall those shares. Any shares not recalled by the September 18th record date will be unable to be voted at the Special Meeting.

Further, as it is possible that shareholders may not be aware that their stock has been loaned by their prime broker(s), we recommend that shareholders contact their prime brokers immediately to confirm that all their stock is fully voteable.

We look forward to all shareholders having their voices heard at the Special Meeting.”

Forward-Looking Statements and Risk Factors

This press release contains forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements regarding our expectations, hopes, intentions or strategies regarding the future are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on management’s beliefs, as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management. Because such statements are based on expectations as to future financial and operating results and are not statements of fact, actual results may differ materially from those projected. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. The risks and uncertainties which forward-looking statements are subject to include, but are not limited to: changes in general economic, business and political conditions, changes in the financial markets and changes in the conditions resulting from the outbreak of a pandemic such as the novel COVID-19 (“COVID-19”); the overall impact of the outbreak of COVID-19 and measures to curb its spread, including the effect of governmental or voluntary mitigation measures such as business shutdowns, social distancing, and stay-at-home orders; our potential inability to find suitable acquisition candidates, acquisitions in lines of business that will not necessarily be limited to our traditional areas of focus, or difficulties in integrating acquisitions; significant competition that our operating subsidiaries face; compliance with extensive government regulation of our operating subsidiaries; risks associated with our split-off from Fidelity National Financial, Inc., including limitations on our strategic and operating flexibility related to the tax-free nature of the split-off and the Investment Company Act of 1940; and risks and uncertainties related to the success of our externalization.

This press release should be read in conjunction with the risks detailed in the “Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information,” “Risk Factors” and other sections of Cannae’s Form 10-Q, 10-K and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
