

CoreLogic Shareholders Overwhelmingly Elect Senator and Cannae Nominees to Board

More Than 86% of All Votes Cast Were to Add Senator and Cannae Nominees W. Steve Albrecht, Wendy Lane and Henry W. “Jay” Winship to the CoreLogic Board

Vote Results Represent Clear Mandate for CoreLogic to Promptly Run a Legitimate Process and Sell to the Highest Bidder

Senator and Cannae Plan to Remain Significant Shareholders and Hold CoreLogic to Account if Sales Process Is Not Managed to Maximize Value

All Three Leading Proxy Advisory Firms – ISS, Glass Lewis and Egan-Jones – Supported Senator and Cannae’s Directors

NEW YORK & LAS VEGAS, November 17, 2020 – Senator Investment Group LP (“Senator”) and Cannae Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CNNE), (“Cannae”), today announced that, based on the preliminary report provided by its proxy solicitor, shareholders have overwhelmingly voted to remove CoreLogic, Inc.’s (“the Company”) (NYSE:CLGX) longest tenured directors: J. David Chatham, David F. Walker and Thomas O’Brien, and replace them with Senator and Cannae nominees W. Steve Albrecht, Wendy Lane and Henry W. “Jay” Winship.

According to the preliminary analysis, more than 86% of the votes cast by shareholders supported adding the three Senator and Cannae directors to the Board.¹ Notably, approximately 50% of the shares cast voted for the removal of CoreLogic Chairman Paul Folino.

Quentin Koffey, Partner, Senator Investment Group, LP stated, “Today’s vote is a clear mandate from shareholders for CoreLogic’s Board to promptly engage in good faith with all bidders for the Company and to maximize value. We are confident that Steve, Wendy, and Jay will bring important perspectives and experience to the boardroom, as they help oversee a process to ensure the best possible outcome for shareholders.

We are extremely grateful for the strong support expressed by our fellow shareholders, as well as all three leading proxy advisory services. We hope that today’s vote is enough to ensure that going forward, CoreLogic’s Board acts with the best interests of all shareholders in mind. However, we are committed to remaining significant shareholders and we will not hesitate to use all options available to us to hold the Board accountable if need be.”
